HOSPITAL FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS

A. Charity Care:

All general hospitals in New York State are required to provide financial assistance to uninsured patients in their primary service areas with incomes at or below 300% of the federal poverty level. Charges are capped at no more than those charged to the hospital's largest volume payer and include in-patient, outpatient and emergency room services. Patient payments are based on a sliding fee schedule with those at or below 100% of the federal poverty level paying only a nominal amount. Assets may be used in determining fees on a case-by-case basis only and must not include primary residence, retirement or college savings accounts or family cars. For patients who work out a payment plan with the hospital, limits are set on the percentage of monthly income and interest charged. Information on hospital policy must be posted and readily available in a language appropriate manner. Patients can apply up to 90 days after discharge and have a right to appeal the decision. New York State maintains a special hospital complaint line at 1-800-804-5447.

POLICY INFORMATION

A. The Affordable Care Act:

Under the Affordable Care Act, if your plan covers children, you can now add or keep your children on your health insurance policy until they turn 26 years old.

What This Means for You

Until now, health plans could remove enrolled children usually at age 19, sometimes older for full-time students. Now, most health plans that cover children must make coverage available to children up to age 26. By allowing children to stay on their parent's plan, the Affordable Care Act makes it easier and more affordable for young adults to get health insurance coverage.

Your adult children can join or remain on your plan whether or not they are:

- married
- living with you
- in school
- financially dependent on you
- eligible to enroll in their employer's plan, with one temporary exception: Until 2014, "grandfathered" group plans do not have to offer dependent coverage up to age 26 if a young adult is eligible for group coverage outside their parents' plan.

Some Important Details

- Your plan is required to provide a 30-day period—no later than the first day of your plan's next "plan year" or "policy year" that begins on or after September 23, 2010—to allow you to enroll your adult child. Your plan must notify you of this enrollment opportunity in writing.
- If you enroll your adult child during this 30-day enrollment period, your plan must cover your adult child from the first day of that plan year or policy year.

For more information, please read the answers to frequently asked questions about young adults and the Affordable Care Act.

NAVIGATIONAL ASSISTANCE

A. Community Health Advocacy (CHA) Program:

The Community Health Advocacy (CHA) Program serves as New York's Statewide Consumer Assistance Program under federal health reforms, Affordable Care Act (ACA). CHA is a network of trusted and reputable community based organizations that assists New Yorkers in navigating our complex health care system. In addition, CHA provides access to medical and social service programs that are available throughout the state, culturally appropriate workshops, individualized counseling in multiple languages and a live-answer helpline staffed by CSS.

Local CHA Programs for Nassau County:

- Health and Welfare Council of Long Island: Kelly Murray – (516) 483-1110
- Nassau/Suffolk Hospital Council: Stacy Villagram – (631) 656-9783

For more information about CHA, please visit: www.communityhealthadvocates.org or call the general helpline at 1-888-614-5400.

B. 2-1-1:

2-1-1 is a Long Island based, online resource directly that provides free and confidential information and referral for help with food, housing, employment, health care services, counseling and more.

For more information, please visit <http://www.211.org/>.

C. The Health Information Tool for Empowerment (HITE):

HITE is an online directory of health and social services specifically for uninsured and under-insured New Yorkers. HITE links to an eligibility calculator that helps uninsured individuals determine whether they are likely to be eligible for one of New York's public health insurance programs and it provides access to a broad array of services, including thousands of government, non-profit, and privately sponsored programs and services.

For more information about HITE please visit <http://hitesite.org/>.

This page was developed by the Healthcare Access Sub-Committee, which is an extension of the Nassau County Department of Health Perinatal Services Network Advocacy Committee.
