AMPLIFYING OUR VOICES FOR CHANGE

Because the mother - child bond starts with mental health
@MayCampaign
National Coalition for Maternal Mental Health

Ask her the question!

From Monday, May 2nd to Friday, May 6 2016, the NCMMH will be changing the conversation to focus back to moms as we share messages and images through social media that encourage moms, friends, family and care providers to ask her the question! How is she sleeping? Eating? Feeling?

You can support the campaign by sharing daily messages on your Facebook and Twitter and by displaying the new National symbol for maternal mental health awareness, the Blue Dot, as your profile picture.
